

Tarrant County Juvenile Fire Setter Program

The Tarrant County Juvenile Fire Setter Program provides education and intervention for children who have played with, thought about or actually set a fire. This program evaluates juveniles to determine the motivation behind fire setting behavior and refers the children and their families to other agencies for assistance and educates the juvenile and the family to the consequences of fire setting.

For more information please contact:

Tarrant County Fire Marshal's Office
2750 Premier St., Fort Worth, TX 76111
817-838-4660
Mike Rehfeld